

Allowing one corporation to own both TV stations and newspapers in a single location will provide the public with only one corporate viewpoint. People will not hear both sides of an issue and could not make an informed judgement. This is an attempt to control public opinion.

I very strongly urge you not to repeal the current ban on ownership of both TV stations and newspapers.